

Lasso graph: the inverse problem is actually solvable

Pavel Kurasov

Stockholm University
106 91 Stockholm, Sweden

The inverse problem for the Schrödinger operator on the lasso graph is discussed. It was proven earlier that for standard matching conditions the potential on the loop cannot be reconstructed even taking into account dependence on the magnetic flux through the loop. We prove that for general matching conditions the potential is uniquely determined, provided two explicit conditions are satisfied.